

Internship Opportunities for students attending Universities or Colleges outside of Canada

As a teaching institution the Royal BC Museum offers unpaid internship opportunities to students that have a sponsoring educational institution. The student must be enrolled in courses that have an internship component, and their internship term is recognized as a formal University or College credit. Speak to your institution about arranging an internship with the Royal BC Museum.

Study and work permit holders from visa-exempt countries who received their permit on or before July 31, 2015 need an eTA to fly or transit to Canada.

Applicants who are issued an initial study or work permit on or after August 1, 2015 will automatically be issued an eTA along with their permit. For work permit or study permit renewal applications, the eTA will not be automatically renewed. If you wish to exit and re-enter Canada by air, you will need to ensure that your eTA is still valid by consulting the Check Status Tool. If your eTA has expired, you will need to apply for a new one as soon as you can.

In order to ensure your eligibility for a work permit, please check the Immigration Canada website for further information Work as a co-op student or intern.
